COVER OUR CHILDREN

ISAIAH 54:17

I pray that you cover my children. Give them the helmet of salvation to protect their minds against messages competing for their attention. Guard their hearts, Lord from anger, depression, anxiety, loneliness or anything that would make them feel unworthy of love. No weapon formed against them shall prosper, In Jesus' Name.

PSALMS 91:10

Keep your hedge of protection around them as they sleep, as they go to school, as they participate in extracurricular activities, as they get jobs. Let them fear nothing. Let no evil befall them. I know that I can't be around them every minute. I thank you, Father, God, for never leaving them. In Jesus Name, Amen.

As we celebrated St. Paul Lutheran Church's 110th Anniversary, the above dateline was gathered:
This is ALL wonderful & part of our history, BUT,
something is missing – our ministries & people.
Here's a thought to consider... we gather history about our people, ministries & buildings.

For example: when did we start the birthday cake ministry at Community Care Center? Mother's Day Out? When did the quilters start sending quilts for Lutheran World Relief? What do we know about Luther League? The Women of St. Paul? The Band of Brothers? When did we change from ALC to ELCA to LCMC? When did we start having church picnics & more? I would love to be able to scan pictures of some past weddings, baptisms, confirmations,
First Communion, & other events for a "Shutterfly" type book for our 120th Anniversary. Our buildings are beautiful & necessary, but it's the people who are St. Paul Lutheran Church! Thoughts?

Welcome into our St. Paul Family of Faith!

St. Paul Lutheran will again give their church members $200 to go towards camp

This money is not just a gift, when different community service projects need to be done at church it would be helpful to have children and youth help with these tasks - moving furniture, spreading mulch, watering plants, putting flags out for Flags Across Hondo, tasks like this.

If you would like to be in charge of a specific fundraiser please feel free to contact Laurie. New ideas or additions are always welcome.

If you have experience in writing grants - like a HEB or Walmart grant please reach out to me.

If you need financial assistance please ask sooner than later.

If you are an adult and would like to be a sponsor for Group Camp please let me know. Your camp registration fee will be paid by the church however, you will be expected to complete a background check as well as Child Protection Training through Camp Eagle.

As a sponsor at Group Camp, you will be required to stay with a group of campers in the cabin, participate in daily/night activities, and monitor the campers within our group to make sure curfews are kept and behavior is acceptable.

It is an awesome experience and I guarantee you will get as much out of attending camp as the youth do.

We will be moving back into the sanctuary very soon and tentatively resuming worship on September 10th. We will need a lot of help to place the pews in numerical order and make minor repairs while they are still in storage. The week following Labor Day we will need volunteers to help with the loading, unloading and fastening of those pews back into the sanctuary, moving chairs into the annex, and other odds and ends. Please contact Rod Prewitt or Wayne Scholtz if you are able to help in any of those areas.

Mission Moment

by Pastor Bryce Formwalt
Director of Mission Growth

Mission: More Than a Middle Name

As an association of congregations, I love our name: Lutheran Congregations in Mission for Christ. It brilliantly captures our aspirations: a network of autonomous congregations united by a Lutheran theological foundation and a common commitment to a greater mission for Jesus Christ in the world!

We recognize four core values that shape our association. We are 1) Free in Christ, 2) Accountable to One Another, 3) Rooted in the Scriptures and Lutheran Confessions, and 4) Working Together to Fulfill Christ Great Commission to Go and Make Disciples of All Nations. While all values are important, it is the fourth one that defines our purpose... our mission.

Yet as I survey our congregations, this fourth value is far less obvious. If you were to ask someone to observe our member congregations and describe our association based on what our churches are doing and how they are spending time and resources, I doubt that our mission to go make disciples of all nations would be noted as our clear and obvious purpose.

This realization has grown clearer to me in recent months. I came across an LCMC congregation's website that publicly claims the first three of our association's core values while completely omitting any mention of the fourth! Additionally, during a meeting of LCMC pastors, a colleague stated that a Lutheran understanding of mission is simply the proper proclamation of the gospel and administration of the sacraments. I respectfully challenged this notion, expressing that although fulfilling the Great Commission includes proper gospel proclamation and sacrament administration, these actions alone do not equate to going and making disciples of all nations. We need to take Jesus' words in Matthew 28 seriously.

I lament that, in an association that professes the centrality of our mission for Christ in its name and beautifully articulates how we are working together to carryout Christ's Great Commission as the fulfillment of this mission, mission may be little more than a middle name to us!

So, I ask you, pastors and churches: what does your church's mission look like? If an unbiased observer were to spend time within your community to draft a report describing who you are as a church and what your church is about, what would it say? How is your church working together to fulfill Christ's Great Commission to go make disciples of all nations?

This, my friends, is our mission... our purpose. I pray that we don't forget it, dumb it down, or drop it off the list. Mission is more than our middle name!

Pastor Bryce Formwalt is the Director of Mission Growth for LCMC Texas District and Program Director of Harvest Workers, an online ministry training program (learn more at www.harvestworkers.net). Residing in Georgetown, Pastor Bryce is available to coach congregations on mission. Please contact him with any questions or comments: 512-942-7776 or bryce@lcmctexas.org.
