A BACK-TO-SCHOOL PRAYER

Loving God, thank you for the rest and relaxation we enjoyed over the summer.

Today, we pray for our children as they begin their new school year.

Bless them with joy at seeing friends, excitement at new experiences, and a love of learning.

Watch over all who learn, replacing fear with joy, anxiety with peace, and tiredness with energy.

Grant teachers wisdom, patience, and joy in serving their students.

In Jesus' name we pray.

Amen.

Praising God & Thanking YOU!!!

There is a sign in our home that was my father-in-law's which simply says: 'Count your blessings.' Y'all are counted among my blessings – so thank you, you who teach; lead; invite; reach out; pray; serve; sing; play; paint; pick up trash; count; visit; encourage; build; write; call; compute; laugh; problem solve; organize; protect; make coffee; make conversation; make prayer shawls, quilts & food to share. Thank you for caring for the hurting, the children, our seasoned & our struggling. Thank you for showing up when needed & when prompted by the Holy Spirit; thank you for staying in touch; coming to church & watching on line. Thank you for being the hands & feet of Jesus Christ here, at work, at home, at school & in the community. Thank you for your desire to learn, ability to stand, & willingness to show strength & grace. You are truly counted among my blessings & I just wanted you to know.

'He will be the sure foundation for your times, a rich store of salvation and wisdom and knowledge; the fear of the Lord is the key to this treasure.'
Isaiah 33:6 NIV

A lot is going on in this world – how are you handling & responding to it all? Be encouraged. In our times, God continues to be the sure foundation on which we can stand. He is the same yesterday, today & forever.

~ Just for Fun ~

August 4 will be a day set aside for baptisms & re-dedications. If you would like to profess your faith in Christ and/or commit to a fresh start, please contact me or the church office. This will be at our home & is open to all.

Latin American Lutheran Mission (LALM)

Latin American Lutheran Mission in Laredo, TX is a private company categorized under Lutheran Church. It was established in 1936 and incorporated in Texas LALM

Rev. Marianna Mendez + 3519 Salinas Ave. Laredo, Texas 78041 + 956-898-8322 – 956-763-1220

The Latin American Lutheran Mission (LALM) is an independent Lutheran mission started in 1936 and is focused on proclaiming the Gospel to the people of the USA on the border, and in Mexico and Central America. This organization encourages Bible study and discipleship training to equip people to fulfill Christ's "Great Commission." The 33 pastors located in the Mexico churches are mostly within a 180-mile radius of Monterrey, Mexico supporting a Bible School.

The LALM Director Rev. Marianna Mendez, is headquartered in Laredo, Texas. Many volunteer opportunities exist for service to the mission in all areas. The Gospel Bookstore is located at the Texas border mission station in Laredo. It serves the literature and media needs of people in the surrounding area. The Board of Directors is composed of people from various Lutheran bodies and supports the ongoing work on the border and in Mexico. Recently LALM has purchased land and are planning for a new Parrish Hall and Human Care Center in Laredo. This endeavor will assist with the many needs of the border and the Central American countries to include Mexico, Guatemala and Nicaragua. The Orphan Grain Train loyally supports this Mission sending food, medical supplies and more. LALM is a faith mission depending entirely upon God for the supplying of its needs through the prayer and freewill offerings of his people as the Holy Spirit leads them. Volunteers and donations are always welcomed.

Mission Moment

by Pastor Bryce Formwalt
Director of Mission Growth

HARVEST
WORKERS

Recognize and Respond

Back in 2019, leaders here in the Texas District took a leap of faith in creating Harvest Workers, our online ministry training program. The biblical inspiration came from Matthew 9 where we read about Jesus' daily ministry: he was teaching and preaching, healing, casting out demons, forgiving sins, and calling disciples. Day after day we read about this ongoing ministry among the ordinary people he encountered wherever he went. One of these days as he went about his work, he paused and surveyed the crowd. As he looked out upon the world that he was dwelling in, I believe he saw all of the problems: the hurt, pain, brokenness, issues, division, anger, addictions, and everything else. Jesus saw all of it!

And upon surveying the world and seeing the problems, Jesus wasn't depressed, angry, or hopeless. Nor did Jesus shame or blame people. Instead, Jesus was moved with compassion and speaks these words: "The harvest is abundant, but the workers are few. Therefore, pray to the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into his harvest."

I don't know about you, but when I pause to look around at the world, it is easy to see just how messed up so many things are. And the truth is that life is hard and full of complex problems. In the face of the magnitude of these problems, it would be easy to think that all we can do is pray. And certainly we should! But I believe God is calling us to also recognize and respond: to be sent out as Harvest Workers. The very next thing Jesus does after he said to pray to the Lord of the harvest to send out workers: He sends them out! The same people he just told to pray, his disciples, he sent out!

Are you a disciple of Jesus? Do you follow Jesus? Is Jesus your Lord and Savior? If so... then Jesus is calling you and me and every other follower of Jesus to not only pray for Harvest Workers... but also to BE Harvest Workers. So it is time to lace up your work boots, y'all! We have work to do... work that will never save us, but that we were saved for as Paul writes in Ephesians 2:8-10.

Day by day as we live our lives in this messy world may we be like Jesus and be moved with compassion and live out the Gospel and share Jesus' love. #LoveWorks2024

Royal Priesthood Legacy

One Achord

The Band One Achord has a future.

We are an eclectic group of individuals that came together through the fires of adversity. Our lives were lost, our souls were dead, our hearts were hardened, our dreams were shattered and our hope was gone. God's Boot Camp found us at a crossroads and a point of no return.

In that spiritual wilderness, we learned how to love God- really love God and not just His gifts. Our lives now have meaning, our souls have life, our hearts are filled with the love God gives and our hope is in Him.

One Achord is the brainchild of bassist/songwriter Daniel Fredericks, fulfilling a promise made to the Lord that he'd use his musical gift to lift up the name of Jesus. Daniel is joined by his band-mates Tracey Simon, Kerry Turner, Mark Jackson, Roger Hazelton, Samaria Roberts, Rasheeda Murphy and Malerie Melchor.

The sole purpose of One Achord is to lift up the name of Jesus, and lead others to the same salvation knowledge.

Our music style covers various of genres, from traditional hymns to contemporary styles. Our goal is simple. And it is to Preach the Gospel Through Song.

Let One Achord share a worship experience with you. We Touch Lives is what we stand on, believing those touched will impact more lives. Bringing full circle the statement that the Band One Achord has a future.
