How Do You Fall In Love With Jesus

Engage with the Word: Regularly reading and meditating on the Bible helps you understand who Jesus is and the depth of His love for humanity. Passages like John 3:16, Romans 5:8, and Ephesians 2:8-9 emphasize God’s love and grace towards us.

Prayer: Engage in heartfelt conversations with God. Through prayer, you can express your gratitude, concerns, desires, and simply cultivate intimacy with Him.

Worship: Whether through songs, praises, or moments of reflection, worshiping God draws us closer to Him and helps us to focus on His attributes and goodness.

Fellowship with Other Believers: Being part of a community or a local church allows you to grow in your faith, share testimonies, and learn from others’ experiences with Christ.

Seek Spiritual Disciplines: Fasting, solitude, and journaling can be powerful tools for deepening your relationship with Jesus.

Service: Jesus emphasized loving and serving others. By actively helping those in need, volunteering, or participating in mission work, you emulate His teachings and understand His heart better.

Surrender: Let go and trust in Jesus. Surrendering means giving control of your life to Him, trusting that He knows best.

Seek Spiritual Growth: Attend Bible studies, spiritual retreats, or workshops that will deepen your knowledge and relationship with Jesus.

Listen: Sometimes, it’s essential to be still and know that He is God (Psalm 46:10). Listen for His voice and guidance in your life.

Seek Guidance: Don’t hesitate to seek guidance from mature Christians, pastors, or Christian counselors who can provide insight and mentorship.

Reflect on Jesus’ Sacrifice: Regularly reflect on the sacrifice Jesus made on the cross. Understanding the depths of His love and sacrifice can inspire profound gratitude and love in return.

Live out His Teachings: As you strive to embody the teachings of Jesus in your daily life – love, patience, kindness, selflessness – you will naturally grow closer to Him.

Falling in love with Jesus is a beautiful, ongoing journey. It’s not just a one-time event but a lifelong process of growing closer to Him every day. Remember, just as with any relationship, it requires effort, time, and commitment. But the rewards of such a relationship – peace, joy, guidance, and eternal love – are beyond measure.

Remembering with love and gratitude those that have gone before us into the presence of Jesus Who dies for us so we could live forever with Him.

“Since we are receiving a Kingdom that is unshakable, let us be thankful and please God by worshipping him with holy fear and awe.”

Isaiah 42:6-9

Mark 13:14-23

While preparing to write something meaningful for this month’s newsletter, I was very much aware of the fear many Christians have over this year’s presidential election AND the desire to give thanks in observance of Thanksgiving. As I was seeking a verse or passage to use, I put in the two words: ‘fear’ and ‘thank’. This verse in Hebrews was the ONLY verse that had both ‘fear’ and ‘thank’ in it. When I read it, I thought: How perfect!!

This verse is perfect because it does not start with fear but with being thankful. How thankful we are that while some of the events happening in our nation here and now may be shaking our nerves, we are a part of a Kingdom that is unshakable! And when it comes to fear we are not to have fear over who our next president will be; but fear, respect, and awe over the One and only King of kings, Who will forever reign in His Kingdom!

What does this mean for us? Yes, we will be impacted here by whoever wins this election, but our eternity is secured and unshakable. We continue to beg for God’s mercy on our nation as we stand on Jesus the Christ, eternally begotten by the Father knowing one day,

“The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ; and He will reign forever and ever.” Revelation 11:15

“Seek not to understand that you may believe, but believe that you may understand.”
~ Saint Augustine

Thank you for the very kind and generous Pastor’s Appreciation gift cards to some of my favorite places, AND the many meaningful personal cards and notes (I am opening one a day). But most of all

‘I thank my God every time I remember you. 4 Every time I pray for all of you, I always pray with joy, 5 because of your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now. 6 I am convinced of this very thing: that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus.’

Philippians 1:3-6

Women’s Thankoffering Service will be on Sunday, November 17th. Monies gathered will go to support Samaritain’s Purse and Israel. Make checks to “SPLC Women.” If you have been saving coins all year, please convert them to paper money or checks! The women are also asking for non-perishable items to be donated to benefit our Medina County Food Pantry. Please join us and give thanks for the abundance we have received from the Lord!

Upcoming Advent Tea Saturday, December 7th from 2:00pm-4:00pm
The Women of St. Paul will be hosting a Christmas Advent Tea for the women of the church. The tables will be elegantly set and decorated for an afternoon tea. This is a great way to start the Christmas Season. If you would like to decorate a table or have questions you may call Carol DeHaven (830) 426-7041. Women of St. Paul will also be revealing their 2024 Prayer Pals and drawing names for 2025. If you are unable to attend the Advent Tea, please bring your Prayer Pal gift to the church office by Friday, December 6th. If you are already in the program, you will automatically be put in again for the next year, but if you have any changes or want to be added contact Debbie Whitehead at (210) 414-1005.

November Special Offering – Embrace Grace & Restore Reproductive Health

Embrace Grace

We're on a mission to make abortion unthinkable by providing the church with everything they need to serve those impacted by unexpected pregnancies practically, spiritually and emotionally.

At our core, we are a group of passionate dreamers who believe that the church, me and you, have the power to make abortion unthinkable. We are the pro-love movement, going beyond stance or a belief system, but saving lives through our actions and with God's love.

Mission: To inspire and equip the church to love on single and pregnant young women and their families.

Vision: For every girl with an unplanned pregnancy to have a church to go to for spiritual, emotional and physical support.

St. Paul is providing this ministry right here within our walls. We are also providing the follow-up ministry Embrace Life. If you have questions or would like to know more about the ministries Embrace Grace or Embrace Life you can contact Deb Cleary by email @ deb.cleary@sbcglobal.net .

Restore Reproductive Health

We provide free, confidential, compassionate, healing services and referrals to people who are experiencing unintended pregnancies or have experienced Sexually Related Trauma (Sexual Assault or Abuse; Post Abortion Trauma; Miscarriage/Stillbirth; or STDs and can include Unintended Pregnancy,). We continue to see an increase in people seeking services from us and our ability to meet their needs is a direct result of your generosity and continued dedicated support, Hallelujah! Also, some of our clients have completed the Embrace Grace Bible study and are beginning the Embrace Life Bible study some of your members lead and support.

Your church has been a huge blessing with your time, prayers and financial support!

In 2024, we began our mobile ministry throughout Medina County, offering our services at sites in Castrovilla, Devine, Lytle, and others to be determined using the Mobile Medical Unit we acquired last November (entirely paid for by an area foundation).

For more information visit RestoreSRT.org or to volunteer to be a part of the solution, contact the director, Diane Cosgrove at email: dianec@restoresrt.org or phone: (830)584-2123.

Lord, Teach Us to Pray

Guest Author, John Waak

Weeks of worry brought a woman to the surgery waiting room. Nagging symptoms in her husband's body grew to the point that not even manly denial could dismiss the feeling that something was not right. His wife, with womanly strength, bore the torch of hope -a hope that said, "You're going to the doctor!" He went. The prognosis was serious but hopeful, but surgery was required to understand what was truly going on. So, there we sat, she and I. We chatted about meaningless things, and then in words that were few, she talked about her worst-case fears. I am sure that somewhere in there we prayed. Then the Doctor came out. As compassionately as he could, and with words that plainly explained what he found, he shared that the situation was terminal and fast-acting. She was stunned into silence until at last, realizing that she needed to say something, quietly uttered a one-word expletive. In that word I clearly heard something that came from the depth of her soul. It wasn't offensive, but honest; not dirty, but pure; not profane, but prayer. It was the most authentic prayer I have ever heard next to Jesus praying, "My God, my God, why hast Thou forsaken me?"

The ancient teachers of Christian faith have taught us that two situations teach us to pray authentically, that is, from the heart. One is the experience of being awed at the magnificence of something astoundingly beautiful. The individual experiences a kind of emptying, and rises in heart-felt worship for that which one has now experienced. And when experienced, the experience longs to be shared. The other situation is in great suffering. Here, too, there is an emptying, but in anguish. The mind fails for words, but the heart speaks its own prayer in a language known and heard by the Spirit of truth. Here too, where there is an emptying there is a great filling, a filling of grace. The woman above uttered a one-word prayer. She was filled with a grace that bore her husband's suffering and eventual death. She was, by grace, the incarnation of God's love, and was herself healed by her faith.

So there you have it. Emptying and filling, dying and rising. One is in the presence of overwhelming beauty, the other in the presence of overwhelming suffering. Yet both result in worship and the experience of the Love that surpasses all understanding. Both are sacred. Both are missional. Both situations demand that you be present to that which is right there before you. Both demand that you pay the price. Both result in divine love flowing like a torrential river for your neighbor. Are you willing to rejoice for the love God has for your neighbor? Are you strong enough to be weak in tears and steadfast in compassion? Do you really want the Lord to teach you to pray? You may find He is teaching you to love. You may find He is teaching you to live. You will certainly find that you are not the object of your prayer, but its fulfillment, by grace, to His glory, as it was for the disciples of old.

John Waak is recently retired from Martin Luther, Giddings, a member of the LCMC Texas District Council, and instructor of the Old Testament, and Spiritual Formation, in Harvest Workers, an online ministry training program (learn more at www.harvestworkers.net).
